'BLACK PANTHER' WRAPS UP SOQUEL MOVIE NIGHTS

Supervisor John Leopold and Santa Cruz County Parks are pleased to present a FREE screening of "Black Panther" on Thursday, Oct. 18 at Heart of Soquel Park.

In acclaimed director Ryan Coogler's interpretation of the popular Marvel Comics superhero, T'Challa must move his advanced but secretive kingdom of Wakanda into the future while confronting a challenge from its past. "Black Panther" is the final 2018 installment of FREE Family Movie Nights at Heart of Soquel Park, located at Soquel Drive and Porter Street behind Tara Redwood School.

A neighborhood party begins at 7 p.m. with FREE refreshments provided by Togo's and music by Ugly Mug open mic performers.

Portable toilets are available and attendees are invited to bring a picnic and low-backed chairs. FREE Family Movie nights are sponsored by Dignity Health Medical Foundation and Dominican Hospital.
