'DESPICABLE ME 3' COMES TO HEART OF SOQUEL PARK

Supervisor John Leopold and Santa Cruz County Parks are pleased to present a FREE screening of "Despicable Me 3" on Thursday, July 19 at Heart of Soquel Park.

In the latest installment of this family-friendly animated favorite, Gru and his Minions team up with Gru's long-lost twin brother to defeat a new enemy. "Despicable Me 3" is part of FREE Family Movie Nights at Heart of Soquel Park, located at Soquel Drive and Porter Street behind Tara Redwood School.

A neighborhood party begins at 7 p.m. with the screening beginning at dusk. FREE refreshments provided by Tortilla Flats. Novelties are being donated by Woodworm Party Store and Play It Again Sports, with music provided by Ugly Mug open mic performers. Soquel Elementary School will sell popcorn and homemade slime.

Portable toilets are available and attendees are invited to bring a picnic and low-backed chairs. FREE Family Movie nights are sponsored by Dignity Health Medical Foundation and Dominican Hospital.

Parks & Recreation Month is taking place throughout July. To participate and learn more, visit www.scparks.com.
