The Position

The County of Santa Cruz Human Services Department is recruiting for a Chief Welfare Fraud Investigator. The ideal candidate is a qualified professional with broad experience conducting investigations and experience in Law Enforcement. The Chief Welfare Fraud Investigator serves as a team leader on difficult and complex cases and needs to have strong leadership experience to make independent decisions within established policies and procedures. The incumbent will be responsible for planning, organizing, coordinating, supervising, and evaluating the work of investigative and support staff including developing and delivering in-service training programs on fraud prevention and related topics. The Chief Welfare Fraud Investigator will have knowledge of Federal and State laws regulating the activities of the Department of Social Services and welfare fraud prevention.

The Community of Santa Cruz

Santa Cruz County has approximately 270,000 residents and is situated in the northern area of Monterey Bay, 70 miles south of San Francisco and 35 miles southwest of the Silicon Valley. The County's natural beauty is apparent in its pristine beaches, lush redwood forests and rich farmland. It has an ideal Mediterranean climate with low humidity and 300 days of sunshine a year. Its unique shops and restaurants, coupled with a multitude of cultural and recreational activities, including theatre, music, art, as well as golfing, surfing, hiking and biking offer a wealth of leisure activities. Higher education includes Cabrillo College and the University of California, Santa Cruz, with two additional State Universities less than an hour away. These elements of high-quality living make Santa Cruz one of California's most desirable areas. live, work, and play!
