A certificate of completion of a paralegal program approved by the American Bar Association.

OR

A certificate of completion of a paralegal program at, or a degree from, a postsecondary institution that requires the successful completion of a minimum of 24 semester, or equivalent, units in law-related courses and that has been accredited by a national or regional accrediting organization or approved by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

OR

A baccalaureate degree or an advanced degree in any subject, a minimum of one year of law-related experience under the supervision of an attorney who has been an active member of the State Bar of California for at least the preceding three years or who has practiced in the federal courts of this state for at least the preceding three years, and a written declaration from this attorney stating that the person is qualified to perform legal tasks.

OR

A high school diploma or general equivalency diploma, a minimum of three years of law-related experience under the supervision of an attorney who has been an active member of the State Bar of California for at least the preceding three years or who has practiced in the federal courts of this state for at least the preceding three years, and a written declaration from this attorney stating that the person is qualified to perform paralegal tasks. This experience and training shall be completed no later than December 31, 2003.

Business and Professions code section 6450, subdivision (d):

Every two years commencing in January 1, 2007, any person that is working as a paralegal shall be required to certify completion of four hours of mandatory continuing legal education in legal ethics and four hours of mandatory continuing legal education in either general law or in an area of specialized law. All continuing legal education courses shall meet the requirements of Section 6070. Certification of these continuing education requirements shall be made with the paralegal's supervising attorney. The paralegal shall be responsible for keeping a record of the paralegal's certifications.

Special Requirements/Conditions: Background Investigation: Positions in the District Attorney's Office and Public Defender's Office must have the ability to pass a full background investigation, including a fingerprint check. Other Special Conditions: Sworn attorneys may not act in this capacity and must be in an attorney class to act in court. License: Possession of a valid California Class C Driver License or the ability to provide suitable transportation which is approved by the appointing authority. Special Working Conditions: May work evenings and/or weekends conducting trainings or attending meetings.

Knowledge: Working knowledge of legal procedure, terminology, and documents; principles of legal research and legal writing; Criminal or Civil legal processes and court systems; and principles of ethics and confidentiality rules related to legal practice.

Ability to: Research, analyze and apply legal principles, facts, evidence, and precedents to legal problems; present statements of law and fact clearly, accurately, and logically in written and oral form; communicate effectively both orally and in writing; conduct investigative research; develop and maintain effective relationships with staff members, departmental representatives and the public; learn to input, access and analyze data using a computer; and conduct legal research utilizing automated research systems.

THE EXAMINATION: Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated on the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.
