THE JOB: The Department of Public Works is seeking a dynamic individual to serve as Chief of Fiscal Services. Under general direction, the Chief of Fiscal Services will develop fiscal policies and plans for implementation; direct the fiscal planning, control, audit and accounting programs to be implemented by subordinate fiscal positions, develop time lines and coordinate the financial portion of the budget; design, coordinate and maintain fiscal, cost accounting, contract administration, billing and grant accounting systems and procedures to assure the quality and technical accuracy of all fiscal programs; prepare the most complex and technical financial reports; determine fiscal data processing needs of the department; oversee and train agency personnel in the use of computerized accounting systems; and perform other duties as required. The eligible list established will be used to fill the current vacancy and other vacancies that become available in Health Service Agency and Human Services Departments, during the life of the list.

THE REQUIREMENTS: Any combination of education and experience that would provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying, unless otherwise specified. A typical way to obtain the knowledge and abilities would be:

Five years of increasingly responsible professional level complex accounting, auditing and budget experience which must have included at least one year as a fiscal manager or supervisor. CPA is desirable.

Special Requirements: Background Investigation: Fingerprinting is required. Other Special Requirements: Availability to work a flexible schedule including evenings, weekends, and holidays.

Knowledge: Thorough knowledge of accounting practices, principles and procedures; auditing practices, principles and procedures; governmental budgeting and financial operations; program accounting; cost accounting practices and procedures; the application of data processing to accounting operations including budgeting, billing, fiscal monitoring and reporting; personal computer hardware and software use; and data base design. Working knowledge of state and federal laws, rules and regulations influencing Health Service Agency, Human Services Department, and Department of Public Works fiscal operations; the principles and practices of supervision and training; contract law; payroll practices; and statistical analysis. Some knowledge of third-party billing and handling accounts receivable as regular credit and collection procedures as well as principles involved in reserving for bad debts.

Ability to: Plan, organize, direct and coordinate a complex fiscal program; hire, supervise, train and evaluate the work of subordinate staff; analyze, evaluate and solve complex administrative problems related to a large agency's fiscal program; interpret, apply and explain complex laws, rules and regulations; establish and maintain an effective working relationship with others; prepare clear, concise and highly complex accounting, statistical and technical reports; develop or revise accounting systems and work procedures to meet changing needs; operate a personal computer to design programs to store, retrieve and analyze information; manage the fiscal program of the Health Services Agency, Human Services Department, and Department of Public Works to assure the quality and technical accuracy; present technical financial data and reports before groups; and act as a fiscal consultant for the department.

THE EXAMINATION: Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated on the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.
