The Community

Located 75 miles south of San Francisco and 35 miles southwest of Silicon Valley, Santa Cruz County has approximately 270,000 residents and is situated on the stunning Monterey Bay. The County’s population is culturally and ethnically diverse, and its natural beauty is apparent in its pristine beaches, lush redwood forests, and rich farmland. The County enjoys an ideal Mediterranean climate with low humidity and approximately 300 days of sunshine a year.

Santa Cruz County’s unique shops and restaurants, coupled with a multitude of cultural and recreational activities, including theatre, music, art as well as golfing, surfing, hiking, and biking offer a wealth of leisure pursuits. There are numerous local higher education institutions including Cabrillo College and the University of California, Santa Cruz, with two additional State Universities less than an hour away. These elements make Santa Cruz County a great tourist destination and a great place to live, work and play!
The Department of Human Services provides safety net services to meet the basic needs of individuals and families, ensures the protection of children, the elderly and dependent adults, and also provides job search assistance and job training opportunities to help job seekers become self-sufficient. The Department is founded on the values of excellent service, compassion, integrity, partnerships, and effective practice. The members of the Human Services Department are dedicated to making a difference in the community they serve.

Human Services is a robust department in the County with over 500 employees and an overall annual budget of approximately $142 million (FY 2019). The Department serves the community through six divisions: Adult & Long-Term Care Services, Employment & Benefit Services, Family & Children’s Services, Housing for Health, Administrative Services and Planning & Evaluation.
