Job # 22-XA7-01

Salary: $7,238 – 9,665 / Month

Closing Date: Friday, September 23, 2022

THE JOB: The Senior Human Services Analyst is the super-journey level position in the Human Services Analyst series within the Human Services Department. The Department’s mission is to “strengthen our community by protecting the vulnerable, promoting self-sufficiency, alleviating poverty, and improving the quality of life”. Senior Human Services Analysts are responsible for developing and facilitating community meetings and engagement, developing and fostering partnerships for positive results, securing resources for community efforts through grant proposals and other strategies, establishing contracts with providers and vendors, gathering and analyzing qualitative and quantitative data for ongoing quality improvement, completing reports due to the California Department of Social Services, focusing on improving client experiences in our programs and services, and focusing on improving outcomes with a specific cohort of clients and community resources. The ideal candidate will be detail oriented, have exceptional writing and people skills, and have capacity to be part of the Leadership team and macro-level discussions. The option for remote work may be available based on the type of work and operational needs, upon successful completion of probation.

Please note the list established through this recruitment may be used to fill the current vacancies and any future vacancies that may occur during the life of the eligible list in the following divisions: Administrative Services, Organizational & Community Development, Family and Children’s Services, Adult & Long Term Care, Employment Benefits Services and Housing for Health. Our current interest is finding the right candidate for Family and Children Services.

THE REQUIREMENTS: Any combination of training and experience that would provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain these knowledge and abilities would be:

One year of experience at a level equivalent to Associate Human Services Analyst with Santa Cruz County.

Special Requirement: Possession of a valid California Class C Driver License or the employee must be able to provide suitable transportation that is approved by the appointing authority.

Knowledge: Thorough knowledge of human services, basic community needs, and community resources; and program evaluation processes. Working knowledge of analytical and research techniques; the functions and services of a local human resources agency; contract law and procurement procedures; grant proposal writing and budgeting; administrative theories and techniques; and basic statistics. Some knowledge of the principles of supervision and training; and basic budgetary techniques.

Ability to: Define complex problems, design efficient and organized plans to collect and format data, establish facts and draw logical conclusions; create and determine acceptability of social science research hypotheses by drawing from accepted theories, practices, principles and empirical data in the social science field; develop effective strategies for solving a wide variety of complex problems; prepare and present a variety of clear and concise oral and written reports; train, schedule, supervise and evaluate subordinate staff; establish and maintain effective working relationships with others contacted in the course of work; interpret legislation and regulations, administrative policies and procedures; and analyze and prepare grant proposals, contracts and related budgets.

THE EXAMINATION: Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated on the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.

HOW TO APPLY: Apply online at www.santacruzcountyjobs.com or mail/bring an application and supplemental questionnaire to: Santa Cruz County Personnel Department, 701 Ocean Street, Room 510, Santa Cruz, CA 95060.
